Message from Mrs Parsons

After three days of closure due to water issues, it was lovely to be back at Ulcombe School yesterday and to be able to run a normal school day again. Although it was a short week with only two days of learning, pupils and staff returned with great enthusiasm. Well done to everyone for settling quickly and engaging so positively continuing with our new topics of learning in the new term.

Yesterday's worship focused on Mary and Joseph presenting Jesus in the Temple, reminding us of thankfulness for family. The children reflected on how Mary and Joseph thanked God for Jesus and talked about the different ways families celebrate and give thanks today. During a quiet reflection, pupils thought about the important people in their own families and shared a moment of stillness.
