This week we have been focusing on rebuilding our school community

Nehemiah 8, 9, 12 and Matthew 7:24-27

We have been discussing how we can re-build the sense of community here at Ulcombe School whilst understanding that we are all pieces of a puzzle that fits together to make one.

In this week's story, Ezra the teacher read out the rules that God had given to his people through Moses. People sometimes call them the Ten Commandments.

The questions we have been asking of ourselves are: How the words that Ezra read from the Torah helped to rebuild the people's hearts?... why the great stories of their past helped them to remember who they were?... how the stories reminded them of who God was?... why the words gave them a reason to celebrate.... Nehemiah wrote in his story that there had never been a celebration like it!.... I wonder why?
