This week in worship we have been focusing on the good news of co-operation

Galatians 3:26-29

²⁶So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, ²⁷for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

We have wondered if we can think of anybody that Jesus met that he co-operated with especially anybody who was very different to those around them? We asked how he co-operated with them and changed their lives? Breaking down barriers and bringing people together is at the heart of the Christian gospel. Even though Jesus was such a great role model for co-operation, his followers do not always follow that example – so they need reminders such as that in the Bible above.
