Mrs Masters Weekly Round Up

What a very busy week we have had here at Ulcombe! The children have been working so hard and I have had the pleasure of teaching Barn Owls and Tawny Owls this week looking at our school motto of 'one body many members' and also our Christian values of hope, trust, endurance and respect. All the children have got a sunflower to grow and I look forward to seeing pictures of their development over the coming weeks.

This week in worship we have been focusing on living a life following the example of Jesus and looking closely at practicing hospitality.

Hebrews 13: 2

2 Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Between 1939 and 1945, thousands of prisoners of war were brought to Yorkshire shores, cities and villages. Thanks to the friendship, love and hospitality some found there, many never returned home. These are the forgotten stories of some of the enemies who found friends in ordinary Yorkshire folk. I wonder why you think those living in Yorkshire did this? What difference do you think it made to both groups of people?
