Mrs Masters Weekly Round Up

Wow what a creative week! Tawny Owls have been examining the work of surrealist artists and have come up with their own stories along a dream narrative. Barn Owls have made me feel hungry with their research, design and cooking of pizzas. Owlets have been making all things ‘ship-shape’ in class and have enjoyed a fun-filled pirate day today. Ask children to tell you all about the good things that have been happening. Have a great weekend.

This week in worship we have been focusing on living a life following the example of Jesus and looking closely at living prayerfully and Pentecost

Psalm 139

1 You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. 2 You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. 3 You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways 4 Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely. 5 You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me. 6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

As humans, we are constantly thinking and reflecting on what we have said or thought, or what we might say or think. This can often lead us to say sorry or consider our actions for the future. Christians know that, because God knows all about them as a loving Father, he wants them to be honest with him - to tell them how they are feeling, for things they are sorry for, for situations that have upset or worried them.
