Mrs Masters Weekly Round Up

Hello Everyone. It has been another wonderful week here. The children have been very busy with their learning and the sun has been shining making it even more enjoyable. The new entrants have settled in so well - it is like they have always been here! Ulcombe School Council have been very busy with their ice lolly sales and we have raised a massive £32.50 so far onwards their chosen charity - The McDonalds Trust. Please keep supporting them if you can each Tuesday. I hope you all have a wonderful weekend.

This week in worship we have been focusing on 'A New School Year: Being wise in God's eyes'

Matthew 7:24-29 - BEING WISE: THE WORDS OF JESUS

Jesus told a story in the Bible about two house builders. It tells the story of the wise and foolish men from the Bible. One built his house on rock and the other on sand.

We have been wondering if the story is just about building a house on good foundations? Why Jesus told this story? God says those who listen to his words and put them into action are like the wise man. Do you know what it truly means to be wise?

TRUST RESPECT HOPE ENDURANCE

House Points – well done to everyone awarded house points this week
