Mrs Masters Weekly Round Up

Hello everyone. The children and staff have all enjoyed another wonderful week here at school. We have all been focusing on anti-bullying week with activities in each class. I am sorry that I have missed the pyjama day for Children in Need, but have been informed what a good day it has been. I hope to be well soon and back on Monday. I want to thank you for your support for Children in Need and wish you all a great weekend.

This week in worship we have been focusing on 'what Jesus do?' - linked to anti-bullying week.

Luke 19: 1-10 - Jesus Comes to Zacchaeus' House

Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner." Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

Christians often ask themselves 'What Would Jesus Do?' to decide how they should treat others. The account of an individual whom everyone hated, Zacchaeus the chief tax collector, helps us to see how Jesus treated someone who had become isolated and ostracised.

Attendance and Punctuality

Our attendance winners this week are Tawny Owls with 91.20%. Good effort. Owlets came second with 90.487% followed by Barn Owls with 85.71%. Whole school attendance improved this week at 89.13%. Punctuality Pup will be going to Barn Owls with no lates recorded. Brilliant! Tawny Owls had six children turning up late, Owlets had two. Please remember to keep us informed if your child is off school – if we are not notified the absence is unauthorised.

Coats in School

Now that the weather is colder, please ensure that your child has a coat with them in school. We try to ensure that outside play takes place everyday, so coats are needed to keep children warm. Thank you.
