Mrs Masters Weekly Round Up

Hello Everyone. Despite all the coughs and sneezes we have made it through the week. The children have been absolute angels all week. Some quite literally as the Nativity rehearsal and recordings are taking place! Thank you for taking care on site with mask wearing and distancing. I am trying so hard to get us all the Christmas as safely as possible and all your help is appreciated. Have a wonderfully festive weekend everyone.

This week in worship we have been focusing on Advent

ADVENT: THE ONE TO COME Isaiah 9:2

Isaiah was a prophet in the eighth century BC, working in the south of Israel. Through his writings he brings a message of warning to the people of God, because they are not living in the way they should, but he then has a message of comfort for his readers as they go through difficult times. The third part of Isaiah looks forward to the distant future when there will be a new heaven and a new earth. These different voices of the prophet correspond to three different sections of the book, but it is the message of hope that Christians turn to during the season of Advent, as they get ready for the mystery of Christmas.
