Easter Break – 2-19 April. Children return Tuesday 19 April 2022

Mrs Masters Weekly Round Up

What a lovely week to end the term. We did lose the sun for a while but hopefully brighter days are ahead. The children have been finishing their learning in their various topics and I know like me are looking forward to the Easter break. Tawny owls have enjoyed a topic day today, a few children have enjoyed hot chocolate with me today and of course the ever 'egg'citing Easter Egg Hunt, kindly arranged by FUS. We are always looking for new members as it would be a shame if this were the last Easter event we were able to hold.

Have a very restful break everyone and remember we will see you back for term 5 on Tuesday 19th April.

JESUS IN THE TEMPLE Luke 19:45-48

When Jesus entered the temple courts, he began to drive out those who were selling. "It is written," he said to them, "My house will be a house of prayer"; but you have made it a den of robbers."

I wonder if rules are always good? I wonder if you can think of any rules that are not right or just? Jesus could sometimes be very awkward when he came across bad rules that hurt people, and that earned him enemies among those who set the rules. One day, he decided to make a stand against some very bad rules. In his time, it was believed that if anyone wanted to give money to support God's work, it had to be expensive special money that you could only buy from approved dealers at the big temple in Jerusalem. The priests running the temple were quite happy about this, because it brought in extra cash.

Lord of the temple courts and festival market, may your urgent call to prayer overturn our self-interest and religious distractions, for the sake of all who long for peace in the great cities of our world. Amen
