Mrs Masters – The Week Ahead

Hello Everyone. After such a fun day of dressing up it seems such a shame that we have what appears to be a normal week ahead. However, we do get a chance to support Red Nose Day this Friday by wearing something red. The sun is apparently meant to shine on us so it won't be long before outside learning is in full swing again. I am writing to let you know that we will have a few staff changes very shortly. Mrs Martin and Mrs UB have both made decisions to leave us. Mrs Martin will be starting a very exciting chapter in her life as she will be training to become a full time play therapist - this is a very exciting opportunity for her. She is leaving us on 30th April. Mrs UB has decided to semi-retire. She will be leaving at the end of this term. Both of these amazing teachers will be missed but I am sure you will join me in wishing them every success and happiness in their new ventures. I will keep you informed of new teachers when appointments have been made. If you have any concerns please have a chat with me.

Romans 12:15 - Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

I wonder when we have felt amazed or compassionate or angry. Children and grown ups feel different emotions many times – sometimes they happen on the same day as different things happen. It is important to talk about them with someone that you trust who can help you to deal with how you are feeling in ways that are safe and support you.

The Bible tells us that Jesus felt these emotions and so he understands when we feel them too.

Dear God, Be with us when we experience the same emotions that we see in Jesus, when we feel amazement, compassion or anger. May we grow through them with you alongside us. AMEN

Red Nose Day – Friday 15 March

It's Red Nose Day this Friday and the children are invited to come into school wearing an item of red clothing or a red nose. As it's funky feet Friday, a pair of bright red socks would work perfectly!

We are not asking for donations this year as we appreciate many of you will have already supported this fantastic cause by purchasing red noses or other merchandise.
