Mrs Masters – The Week Ahead

Hello Everyone. Here we are in the final week of what has been a very busy term. We have the Community Church Service later today. I hope to see as many of you as possible there. Tea and cake from 1.30pm and the service will start around 2.00pm. On Tuesday FUS are holding an afternoon of Easter activities, including the design of an Easter egg competition. I am sending letters today about the new teacher I have appointed for Owlets and the plans for Tawny Owls for terms 5 and 6. Please remember that school finishes at 3.15pm on Thursday and we are back at 8.30am on Monday 15th April. On behalf of myself and the entire team here we all wish you a happy and restful Easter break.

Matthew 27:11-26 - Now Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" Jesus said to him, "It is as you say." And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, He answered nothing. Then Pilate said to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?" But He answered him not one word, so that the governor marvelled greatly.

Even though there was no reason to find Jesus guilty, the chief priests and elders of the people decided that he must be put to death. They took Jesus to Pilate, the Roman Governor for the region, to be condemned, but Pilate could not find him guilty of any crime. The chief priests and elders insisted, "We have a law" they told Pilate, "Jesus must die because he has claimed to be the Son of God." Pilate was worried about this. He took a bowl of water and washed his hands to show that he would take no further responsibility for what happened to Jesus and he handed him over to be crucified.

I wonder what you think about when you think about how Jesus' hands were bound. He is a prisoner even though he has done nothing wrong. I wonder how it might feel to be unjustly accused and treated as a criminal.

God our Father, Thank you that on the very first Good Friday, you stretched out your arms on the cross and embraced the whole world in love. AMEN
