Message from Mrs Parsons

We've had a wonderfully festive week at Ulcombe! Christmas Jumper Day was brilliant, with children and staff filling the school with colour and sparkle. Our Christmas Lunch yesterday was a big success too — a huge thank you to Candice in the kitchen for preparing such a delicious meal.

Today's Christmas Fun Afternoon has been fantastic, and we'd like to give an enormous thank you to FUS for organising the event and generously giving up their whole day to make it happen. Nativity rehearsals are in full swing and going brilliantly. We're very much looking forward to seeing everyone at the church next Wednesday afternoon for the performance.

In this week's worship, we were fortunate to have the ministry team in on Thursday to explore why Christians remember John the Baptist at Christmas time. We revisited the story of his birth and thought about how John fits into the Big Story of the Bible—a messenger sent to prepare the way for Jesus.

The children learned that John had an important job: to help people get ready for Jesus by sharing God's love and encouraging others to do the same. We then wondered together about the different jobs God calls people to do today and how each of us can share God's love in our own ways, just as John and Jesus did.

Crossing Patrol Update

As you already know, Nicky hasn't been on crossing patrol duty for a while due to a medical condition.

retirement

Nicky has informed us this week that after over 35 years of service at the school she will be retiring in the New Year. The staff and children will miss seeing Nicky's smiling face everyday and we would like to thank her for all her hard work and dedication to the school and wish her the best for her retirement.
